CLAIMANT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

RULES FOR FILING A CLAIM AND APPEAL RIGHTS

1. It is your responsibility to file this claim form promptly after you stop working due to your disability. Filing your claim before your last day of work will delay its processing. The law requires that claims must be filed within 30 days after the beginning of the disability. Benefits may be denied or reduced if the claim is filed late. If your claim is filed beyond the thirty day period, please use the space provided on the reverse side of Part A to give your reasons for the late filing.
2. If you disagree with a determination on your claim and wish to appeal, you must do so in writing within ten (10) days from the date the decision was mailed. You do not need a lawyer at the appeal hearing.

CLAIMANT RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Your signature certifies that you understand any misrepresentation of fact or failure to disclose a material fact may be punishable under the law. This includes any changes to the Medical Certificate or the Employer's Statement made by you without authorization by your physician or your employer.
2. You must inform us of any other payments you are receiving such as sick pay or wages, a pension from your last employer, worker's compensation benefits, Social Security Disability benefits, or disability benefits from your employer or union.
3. If you receive a request for continued medical certification (Form P30), you must have your physician complete and sign the form. You should return it promptly.
4. When you recover or return to work, you must report this date immediately to the Division of Temporary Disability Insurance.
5. If you are requesting voluntary Federal Income Tax (F.I.T.) deductions to be withheld from your disability benefits, attach Form W-4S (Request for Federal Income Tax Withholding From Sick Pay) to your claim. Forms should be obtained from your employer or the Internal Revenue Service.

NOTE: If your disability is expected to last for one year or longer, you may be eligible for Federal Social Security Disability Benefits.
